

Name: _____

Imagery Worksheet

Use Your Senses

Imagery is a description of something using your senses. There are five senses: sight, taste, touch, hearing, and smell.

Directions: Read the sentences. Underline the imagery. Explain which sense the writer uses.

1. Jeb went in the bath and felt the warm water on his cool legs.

Which sense does the writer use?

2. Kelly was on a jog when she caught a whiff of fresh-baked bread.

Which sense does the writer use?

3. They sat on the beach and saw the sun's red rays pierce the sky.

Which sense does the writer use?

4. The jingling of keys alerted the kids that mom was home.

Which sense does the writer use?

5. As Norris waited in line, sweat trickled down his forehead and stung his eyes.

Which sense does the writer use?

6. The brew curled Tara's tongue with its sour, curdled taste.

Which sense does the writer use?